b7C

[] stated that during his conversation with GREEN, the latter mentioned that he would like to take a trip to Russia in order to meet some Russian amateur radio operators with a view toward preparing an article for "CQ". [] advised that he actually did not know how capable the subject is as a technical writer on radio matters. He said that the subject did not write very much for "CQ", but had various guest writers and editors furnish articles.
